Wednesday, June 20
3:30 – 5:00 Registration
5:00 – 6:30 Opening Cocktail Reception

Thursday, June 21
8:00 – 8:45 Continental Breakfast
8:45 – 9:00 Gold Sponsor Podium Time
9:00 – 9:30 Wearables in Pharmacy: Opportunities for Patient Engagement and End-user Data Collection
Timothy Aungst, Pharm.D., Associate Professor of Pharmacy Practice, Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences
The rapid rise of digital health technologies has led to a variety of wearable health devices that offer new means of data acquisition directly from patients. This data has the opportunity to be leveraged for directed patient care, along with use in clinical research. Timothy will focus on several examples of selected wearable technologies and the ramifications for pharmacy practice.

9:30 – 10:00 New HIPAA Update: NCPDP F2 Telecommunication Claim Standard
Annette Gabel, President, ACAG Consulting
Annette will bring us up to date on a range of topics around the forthcoming NCPDP F2 telecom standard, including the current regulatory status, how pharmacy is embracing the change, the significant changes from D.0 to F2, and the proposed timeline for implementation.

10:00 – 10:30 PGx: Innovative Methods for Optimizing and Personalizing Medication Therapy
Ben Bluml, R.Ph., Senior Vice President, Research and Innovation, American Pharmacists Association Foundation
Growing PGx evidence demonstrates that individual genetic differences impact medication effectiveness and disposition. Ben will explore CPIC guidelines and genotype-guided therapy selection to create personalized medication regimens designed to make medications safer and more effective in diverse populations. Learn how applying a unique patient-centered, team-based approach for implementing an individualized pharmacotherapy strategy at the point of care can contribute to improved health outcomes.

10:30 – 11:00 Break

11:00 – 11:45 Wrapping Your Head Around Blockchain: Foundations and Potential Implications for Healthcare
Brent Fox, Pharm.D., Ph.D., Associate Professor, Auburn University Harrison School of Pharmacy
If an award for most-hyped technology existed, blockchain... would likely have received it over the last several years. Indeed, blockchain has been forecast to disrupt a laundry list of industries, including banking and pharma. But what exactly is blockchain? And what is its potential role in healthcare? Brent begins with a foundational introduction to blockchain technology. After providing a common point of understanding, he will focus on blockchain in healthcare, including challenges, its potential role, and example applications.

11:45 – 12:15 Interoperability, FHIR, and Blockchain: Where Do We Go from Here?
Tim Kosty, R.Ph., President, Pharmacy Healthcare Solutions, Inc.
Tim will discuss the challenges in developing and the progress in creating an interoperable health system, including the recent announcement from Apple that it will be creating a patient health record using the fast healthcare interoperability resources (FHIR) process. He will explore the challenges for healthcare technology companies, healthcare providers, pharmacies, and patients, and discuss whether these efforts are solving the right problem and whether new technology such as blockchain will make current efforts obsolete.

12:15 – 1:30 Lunch
1:30 – 5:30 Networking and Business Meetings
5:30 – 7:00 President's Reception

Friday, June 22

8:00 – 8:45 Continental Breakfast
8:45 – 9:00 Midyear Report on ASAP Activities
9:00 – 9:30 Prescription Drug Monitoring Programs: Where Are They Headed?
Danna Droz, J.D., R.Ph., Prescription Monitoring Program Liaison, National Association of Boards of Pharmacy
Danna will discuss how prescription drug monitoring programs have been changing to meet the demands of the opioid crisis and the new challenges they face in the future.

9:30 – 10:00 Taking PDMPs to the Next Level: Lessons Learned from Reporting All Prescriptions Using the ASAP PDMP Standard
Kevin Borcher, Pharm.D., PDMP Program Director, Nebraska Health Information Initiative (NeHII)
In 2017 Nebraska enhanced its PDMP to require reporting of all controlled substances. Beginning Jan. 1, 2018, the legislation mandated the reporting of all prescription drugs to the PDMP. Understanding the reasons for this innovative and expanded use of the PDMP and the opportunities and challenges in achieving this can provide valuable benefits for other states interested in this.

10:00 – 10:30 Break
10:30 – 11:00 The Road to the New SCRIPT Standard
Patrice Bavaro Olson, Director, Product Innovation, Surescripts
Patrice will discuss some of the key ways that Surescripts is preparing to support the industry's journey to the new SCRIPT standard, including backward compatibility, translations, and certification/on-boarding tools.

11:00 – 11:30 Community Pharmacy and the Next Phase of the DSCSA
Kala Shankle, J.D., Director, Policy and Regulatory Affairs, National Community Pharmacists Association
Kala will discuss the next phase of the Drug Supply Chain Security Act (DSCSA) and how community pharmacies can prepare to comply with upcoming requirements under the law.

11:30 – 12:00 Pharmacist eCare Plan: Beyond CPESN Networks and the CMMI Grant
Trista Pfeiffenberger, Pharm.D., M.S., Director of Quality and Operations, CPESN USA
Trista will provide an update on the current status of the eCare Plan tool and offer insights that help better explain the potential ubiquity of the eCare Plan within pharmacy.
